Senate Bill (SB) 1383 California's Short-Lived Climate Pollutant Reduction Strategy

California has implemented statewide organic waste recycling and surplus food recovery.

All jurisdictions must provide organic waste collection services to all residents and businesses and recycle these organic materials.

Reducing organic waste in landfills = less methane.

Organics like food scraps, yard trimmings, paper, and cardboard make up half of what Californians dump in landfills. Organic waste in landfills emits methane, a climate super pollutant more than 80 times more potent than carbon dioxide.

Do your part. Keep the green stream clean.

Only items that were once alive belong the organics collection containers. The material is taken to a facility to create compost.

Proper sorting makes a difference.

Food scraps and food-soiled paper belong in your ORGANICS containers. Plastic, metal, and glass do NOT belong in the ORGANICS containers. You can find more tips at: SanRamonRecycles.com/foodscrapcollection
